

Giving is more than doing good. It's how you grow.

Corporate social responsibility helps you attract and keep top talent.

Your employees want to be inspired, feel good, and be part of a company that fits with their values. Proudly display your company's values and support for your community by investing in social change with Foundations Health & Wholeness, all while recruiting and retaining top, passionate talent.

MAKE FUTURES BRIGHT

Show your team that you support the future by helping youth reached by RAYS Youth Services program. Prevention education, outreach, providing basic needs, and crisis services help all youth avoid negative impacts of life, specifically addressing youth homelessness, running away, and human trafficking.

HELP MEN LIVE WELL

Men make up a big part of the workforce. The Man Project is an initiative to help reduce men's suicide and give men the resources they need to live well. Men complete suicide four times more often than women, and men are often less likely to seek professional help or even talk to a friend or family member. You can create opportunities for men, including the men on your team, to be more connected and get support during tough times.

INNOVATE SOLUTIONS

Declare that innovation is valued in your company and throughout the community. Invest in the Innovation Fund, which gives help pilot new mental wellness initiatives, pay for innovative training, and make new technology a reality.

SPONSOR ETHICS IN ACTION

Put your ethics into action. The Ethics in Action Honors Event is a signature community event that has been inspiring people throughout Brown County. The event adds value to the community by lifting up stories of ethics in action and raises critical funds to provide mental health counseling for our neighbors in financial need. Your sponsorship gives your employees a chance to get attend and connect with others in the community.

BREAK DOWN BARRIERS

Demonstrate your value that everyone matters. Children and adults are struggling with their mental health, and they need access to therapy. You are the solution to remove financial barriers for people who are uninsured or underinsured. You can make sure everyone throughout our community has an opportunity to heal.

HOST A WISH LIST DRIVE

Get your team involved in the solution. Collect much-needed tangible donations for our programs. The opportunity creates connection and joy for your group while filling critical needs for the children, youth, and adults we serve.
